

The Song I Never Wrote

Words by BARBARA KUPFERBERG

Music by DAVID RUBENSTEIN (ASCAP)

Slowly (♩=80)

Soprano (Daughter)

Tenor (Father)

Piano

mf p

5

mp

You are the song I ne-ver wrote, The 9

po-em whose words e-lud ed me. The 13

sweet cre-a-tion that just grew,

17

You are my heart's re - mem - br - ance too.

21 mp

You were the fai - ry tale king of my sto - ries, You are the one who cre - at - ed my world,

Ped. sim.

25

You are the one You are the one You are the one that I turned to for suc - cor, when

29

all my co - lor - ful rib - bons un - furled.

33

f

Where have the days — gone, the years and the mo — ments, Where is that look — of —

37

p f f

wide eyed de — light? At night in my dreams at night in my dreams at night in my dreams you — ap pear as you were dear All of your years still co — lor my sight.

41

Ped. cresc.

46

ff mf

sim.

50 f

You held my hand when we walked in the park dear, You whist led songs from a far away land

54 p f

Now in your face, Now in your face, Now in your face I can see you re - mem ber as

58 ff

you gave me your heart in the palm of your hand.

ff

Ped.

62 mp mp Where are the words that we never said?
 Where have the years gone, the days and the moments,

66 sim f Where are the hopes where are the hopes and the dreams we uncovered
 Where are the hopes where are the hopes and the dreams we uncovered

70 p ff They are a live, They are a live, They are a -
 They are a - live They are a live, They are a -

73 mp live, they are not dead.
 live, they are not dead.

77 p

Sing me a song now, as sweet as to - mor row, as sweet as to - mor - row

Sing me a song now, as sweet as to - mor - row

81 mf

Let the sun rise _ on the start of this day. _ Let us look for - ward to

Let the sun rise _ start of this day _

84 f

what we can share now. That is our pros - pect, that is our way.

what we can share now. That is our pros - pect, that is our way.

87 f Slower (♩=60)
Things past sup - port — us, al -
Things past sup - port — us, al -
pp f
Slower (♩=60)

90
ly us, en - dear us, Here in our face - s there's love in our eyes, ly us, en - dear us, Here in our face - s there's love in our eyes,
f

93
Sing we, _____ to - mor - row, Sing we, _____ to - mor - row, Sing we, _____ to - mor - row, Sing we, _____ to - mor - row,
f

95

Sing we to - mor - row, — out song, our song, our

Sing we to - mor - row, — our song, — our song

97 More broadly

song of the fu - ture, — Sing we, to -

song of the fu - ture, — Sing we, to -

Ped.

100

ge - ther, a small pa - ra dise.

ge - ther, a small pa - ra dise.